

Fourth Baptist Christian School

2024-25 Part-Time Student & Athletic Participation Information Sheet

All students desiring acceptance to any of our school programs must follow the admissions guidelines of our Parent/Student Handbook.

Part-time students are those taking fewer than four core academic classes.

Students in Grades 9-12 wishing to participate in our JV/Varsity Warrior Athletics MUST TAKE AT LEAST ONE ACADEMIC ONSITE COURSE (NOT including music and 9th hour elective courses).

Any student enrolled in another high school or college PSEO program may not participate as a part-time student or athlete at FBCS.

The Application process for a part-time student is as follows:

1. Fill out the application, reference forms, etc. and pay the $35.00 Application Fee.
2. Upon receipt of the application, an interview will be scheduled with the administrator, parents and student (for new students only). Testing may be necessary if the student is taking academic classes with us.
3. After the interview (and testing), a determination will be made and communicated by letter or email.
4. Part-time students who take courses on the campus of FBCS must provide the school with immunization and health records.

Fees would be assessed as follows:

Application and Assessment Fee.....$35.00
 Registration Fee.....$35.00 (includes student insurance & MACS student fees)
 Books.....$50.00/per academic class

Annual Tuition (academic classes)
